ADMINISTRATORS AND STAFF

THEY AREN'T TOO SUPERIOR A GROUP TO BE OUR FRIENDS.
WE RESPECT THEM BECAUSE THEY ARE TOO INFLUENTIAL TO BE OUR ENEMIES.
WHILE EACH ENHANCES THE OTHER'S LEARNING,
THEY OFFER US EXPERIENCE,
WE OFFER THEM HOPE.

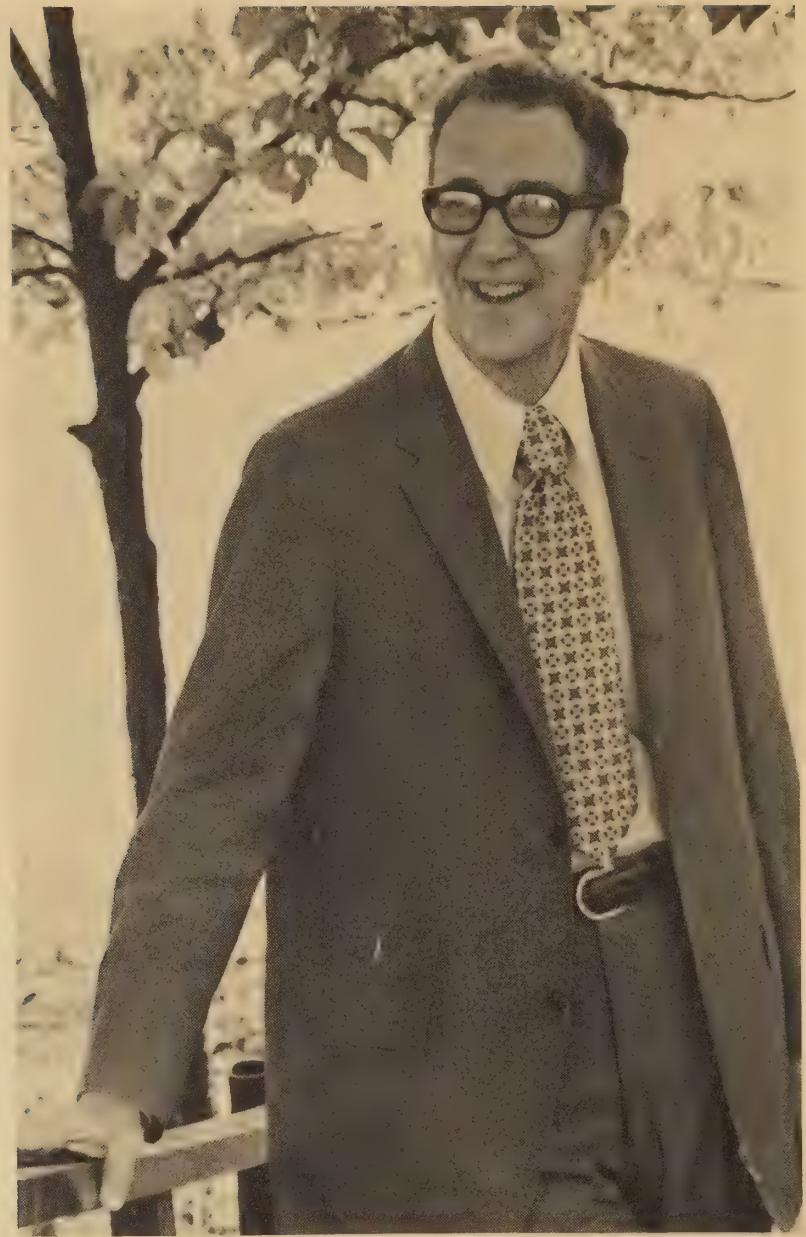

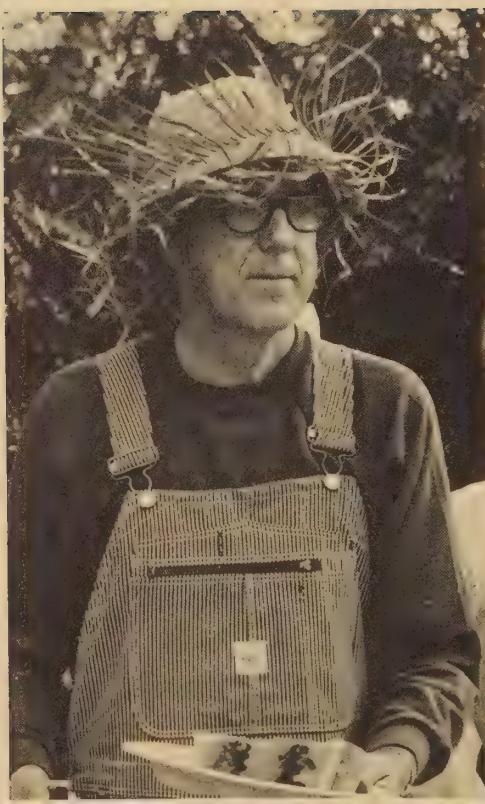

Dr. Floyd Turner - President

Floyd V. Turner is the chief, the boss, the grand man, and the president of Virginia Intermont College. He is the speaker with an anecdote for every occasion and has the God-given talent to hold an audience in the palm of his hand. Virginia Intermont College is what it is today because of a combination of his vision, pragmatism and charm shown in fulfilling his presidential duties.

academics

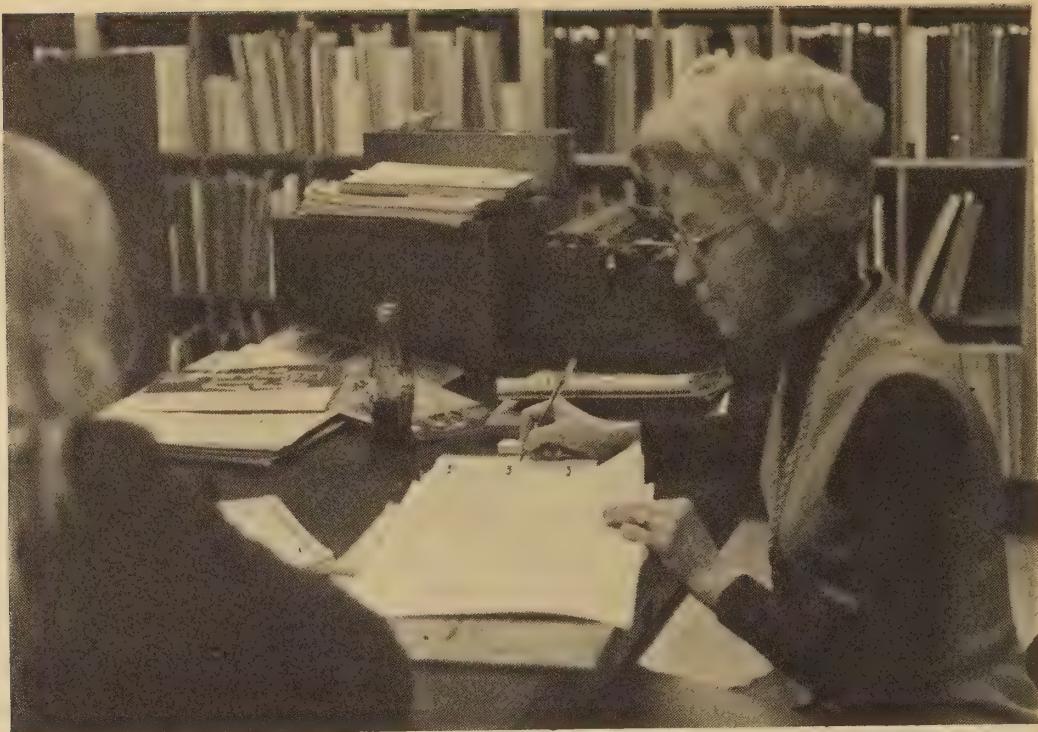

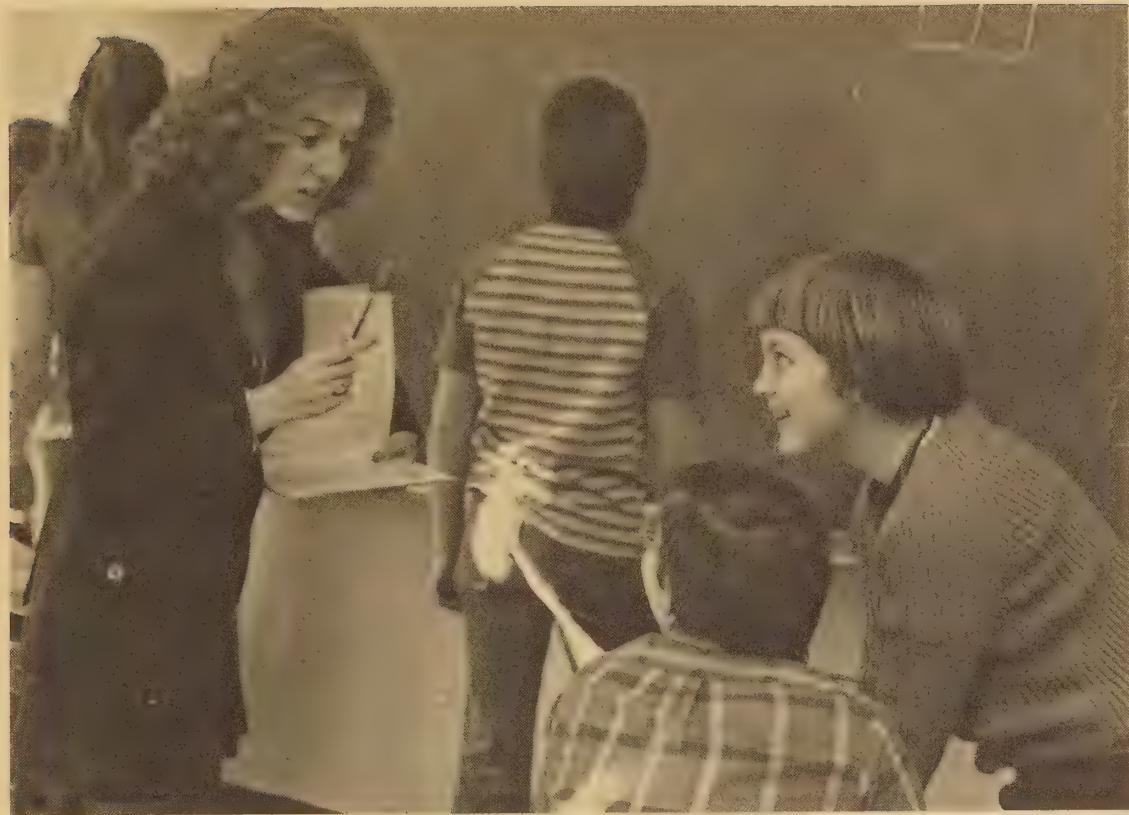

This is a place where many selves come together. In our close-knit NEIGHBORHOOD professors and students experience together.

Interacting professionally, we work together and play together. Lending each other a helping hand forms an academic community with its own values and goals. Our uniqueness emits zeal into the community.

STUDENT TEACHING

Academics are launching pads that set us up for future careers.

CLASS OFFICERS: Carol Eppinger, President; Susan Abshire, Vice-President; Linzie Rodgers, Secretary; Dabney Forehand, Treasurer; Mary Topping, Judicial Representative.

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose . . . "A season now ends and a new one begins for the Class of 1974. We all came from lives in homes scattered all over the world to be joined as a class at V.I. Our purpose was to be educated for the vocation of our choice. As our individual goals were being fulfilled and accomplished, we were making friends, laughing, crying, playing and working. It was a new life. Now we are again to be scattered by the winds to begin new lives. Some of us will continue our education, and some will begin working in the field for which we were trained. But, whatever we do, it is time for us to leave V.I. as a class. Although some of us may never return, V.I. will always remain a part of our lives. All of us have memories of our years at V.I. that we will remember with fondness in the new season of our lives.

INTERMONT STAFF

Debbi Paul - Co-Editor; Editor Honors

Kay Hess - Co-Editor

Without the faith of a few beloved friends, the Intermont 1974 would have been impossible to produce. These few pages represent the staff's tears, frustrations, labors and hopes. To all involved, we hope this yearbook will be your reward.
